A 644 MILE DRIVE FINISHED.

Over Santa Cruz Mountains—How Fruit is Raised in the Great Fruit Belt of the Golden State.

DEAR SIR: Nine miles from Monte rey, near the beach, is the old Carmel Mission, founded by Junipero Serra in 1771. This old stone building with out floor still stands a monument to the memory of its founder, who lies buried under the platform on which he preached to the Indians more than one hundred years ago. Thousands of tourists visit this old mission every year, as I noted by the great number who had registered. There is preaching once a year and Sunday school is held every Sunday. An admission of ten cents is charged visitors, to go in and inspect the edifice that has with stood the storms of one and a quarter centuries.

Monterey is a great fishing point.
The biggest hauls are made at night or early in the morning. The men were all busy baiting their hooks and mending their nets, dozens of them.
The fishing is done in a small sailing craft, with hook and seine. Rock cod, sole, king fish, smelt, salmon, flound ers and squids were everywhere in ev idence, as the fishermen were just ar riving from their morning catch. These fishermen are nearly all foreigners, live cheaply, have very little of this world's possessions, spend a good por tion of their lives toiling in their lit tle boats, don't seem to know what sickness is, and are rollicking, jovial fellows. It was interesting to see them mend their seines and fold their huge nets for the morrow's labor; and some of the nets and seines were too heavy for a man to carry. As they were taken from their boats they were spread upon the wharf to dry, and the catch was taken directly to the whole sale houses from which shipments are made each day to San Francisco and other points. We have had every op portunity to try every variety of salt water fish caught here, and I must say that they are very palatable. The squid is used entirely as a fertilizer.
None except the Chinese fish for them.
They are a species of the devil fish, are not more than six inches long and they are caught by the whole ton and cured by spreading on the grass and sun dried.

On to Watsonville I go, 42 miles in a day. It is a big drive and our browns felt the pull. The country is beginning to look more substantial—better farms, more acreage in crops—roads fenced, but not fenced in, dwell ings improved, soil rich, and one per son don't own a county. All along the road the fencing is of redwood—split pickets, which are covered on the north side with moss. This fence ing I am told will stand twenty years.
The public roads are wide, smooth, solid and well kept. But near ly all dwellings are set back some dis tance from public thoroughfares. Ab out a mile South of Watsonville my horse shed both her hind shoes, hav ing traveled 396 miles in them. The front shoes were still good. We push ed on to Santa Cruz, one of the love liest towns in the state and with a cli mate well nigh perfect. It is near to the sea, and has a five mile cliff drive which is a wonder. The road is per fect, scenery grand, climate without a flaw. Here we found berries, pea ches, cherries, figs, apricots, a dozen kinds of grapes, apples, etc., but of all the fruits raised here the cherries are finest. In size and flavor they have no superiors. In all of the fruit I sampled, and I partook liberal ly, I never saw a worm. All of the orchards and vineyards hereabouts are small, and consequently the grow ers are prosperous. I note that this is one spot in California where the bloated capitalist hasn't his grasp on everything. It never freezes at Santa Cruz. The coldest winters do not bring frost and the warmest summers the mercury rarely rises above 85 or 90 degrees. The people all have the bloom of health on their faces, and and they all look as youthful as they do healthy.

East and north of here the moun tains rise abruptly. Seven miles in a northerly direction is a 70 acre patch of virgin red woods. It costs you 10 cents to see this patch of timber, but it is worth the price. I penned the notes for this letter in the hollow of one tree which is named the Gen Fre mont, after the explorer, who camped in the cavity at its base when he was making his trip through California more than half a century ago. Gen.
Grant, Gen Sherman, Giant and Jun bo are the names of some of these big trees. These trees are 20 to 21 feet in diameter, at the base, and from 280 to 300 feet high. Standing be side one a man looks like a pigmy.
The redwood is an evergreen, resem bles the eastern hemlock, except the wood is softer, and when the trees are taken to the mills to be converted in to lumber they are split with dynam ite before the can be gotten on to the mill carriage.

Northeasterly from Santa Cruz the San Francisco road leads over the Santa Cruz mountains to Los Gatos, a distance of 25 miles. This is a won derful drive and one that is full of surprises. We climb a mountain 1, 400 feet, go down on the other side.
The entire distance we found here and there little farms, small vin yards, five and ten acre orchards chin ked in here and there, where the land was level enough to cultivate. The road is too narrow to pass a team for much of the distance, and in many places I could sit in my carriage and split down one thousand feet. If one drives a scary horse or even a nervous animal, over these precipitous moun tains he takes his life in his hands.
Not a mile from a large vineyard, while making this journey a moun tain lion crossed the road in front of us and darted into the dense under growth. The wild animals are very plentiful here and give the settlers much trouble. As we glided down off the mountain and rolled into the beautiful Santa Clara valley, which is the most prolific fruit belt in the state we thanked heaven we had gotten over without an accident.

Four days we spent wandering through the orchards, sampling the cherries, and apricots and figs. This country is a forest of orch ards. Nearly every farmer has his sign out like a merchant. Here are some of them: "Denman's Haven," "Oro Vineyard and Winery," "Trux edo Ranch," "Sordis Fruit Co," etc.
This valley is flat and level and near ly every acre is under cultivation. I had never before seen such fruit far ming. Five hundred dollars per acre would not buy some of these fruit farms. The attention that the fruit culture is given in this valley opened my eyes. The trees are looked after constantly. A worms nest in the branches or a shoot from near the ground or a dead limb or a crooked tree, or a tree with the yellows, is ne ver seen. Every tree is perfect. If a tree gets sick it is doctored and cur ed. Curculio and tree lice and cat erpillars, and worms are not permit ted to take possession of the trees.

They are worked around, and watch ed, and soaked, and limed and spray ed whenever anything is wrong, and the result is the most beautiful fruit ever seen—trees that bear bountifully every year and bear perfect fruit.
And then just as much pains is taken in packing and shipping the fruit.
This I think accounts for California's great success as a fruit growing state.
In the first place the varieties particu larly adapted to the climate and soil are secured by careful propagation, and experiment, and then a study is made of tree culture and fruit ship ment.

We drove from Los Gatos to San Jose and thence to Mt. Hamilton, 27 miles farther. Here is located the wonderful Lick Observatory. We were permitted to view Jupiter thro ugh the big telescope, which is 56 ft. long and has a lens 36 inches in diam eter. This fully compensated for the long drive of 56 miles, for we had to return to San Jose to get off of the mountain. This observatory was found ed by James Lick, who was a friend to rich and poor. Three quarters of a million dollars have been expended in building and equipping this observa tory which is on the apex of Mt Ham ilton, 4443 feet above sea level. The building is a palace in finish and ap pointment, and is maintained by a fund provided by Mr. Lick before he died, who is now buried under the foundation of the great telescope.

The distance from San Jose to San Francisco is 52 miles, which we made in a day and a half. For 20 miles the orchards extended, when the fruit belt ran out and we encountered biting winds and sandbanks and flats are ev erywhere to be seen. And as we ar rived at San Francisco in midsummer we passed out of tropical heat into a temperature of 55 to 65 degrees—so cool and piercing is the wind that hea vy underwear and winter wraps are worn by every one.

We have now traveled by carriage 644 miles, passed through 83 large and small towns, and interviewed hun dreds of farmers, merchants, herd ers, miners, and tourists. We will dis pose of our outfit, visit the metropo lis of this coast a few days, and then board the overland for our far east ern home. Meanwhile I will pick up some items hereabouts that I will en deavor to weave into two or three more interesting letters.

An Editor's Soliloquy.

An editor reclining in a hammock was looking up at the leaves of a tree and dreaming which he had rather do —sit on the bank of a deep creek and fish away that still, hot morning, or put on a bathing suit and surge about in the green salt surf, or get a car riage full of girls with a fine lunch, and drive along the shady ridges to a cool spring and discuss the lunch; or take a sail on the moonlit bay with some fair maiden singing to the soft accompaniment of a guitar; or sit on Pikes Peak in the middle of August and brush the snowflake clouds from his brow, or—stay at home. He stayed at home. That was the right thing. In fact he couldn't do any thing else. He had no money.

ACCUSED IN STONE.

Tennessee Furnishes a Parallel for Kut tawa's Graveyard Scandal.

MAKES WAR IN WPAKEY COUNTY.

Paducah News.

Memphis lawyers have within the last couple of days brought suit up in Weakly county for damages for defa mation of character alleged to be con tained in an epitaph on a tombstone.
The suit is attracting attention all over West Tennessee.

Such a cause of action is probably unheard of in the annals of the courts of the country, nevertheless the wor ding on this tombstone is such as is seldom seen in anybody's graveyard.
There is, so far as can be learned, but one parallel instance, and that exam ple is to be found in the old grave yard at Kuttawa, Ky., where the bo dy of the man killed by young H.
Skinner lies buried. Upon the tomb stone the widow of the dead man had engraved:

"Murdered by Highland Skinner," Many Paducah people have seen this queer inscription and it has grown so common in Lyon county that people fail to pay any attention to it. But down in Tennessee they look at these things differently.
The parties to the suit in question reside near Martin, in Weakly county of which the seat is Dresden, and at Dresden this lawsuit is brought. Back in December, 1896, L. B. Cate was shot and killed by one Bill Penick.
Penick was indicted and tried on the charge of murder. He was defended by the same lawyers herein before mentioned, who are now acting for him in this civil suit. The accused was acquitted on the plea of self de fence.

The parents of the deceased L. B.
Cate thought to honor his memory by erecting a suitable tombstone over his grave and by having cut in the mar ble a legend setting forth some of the circumstances of his taking off. The following was accordingly cut in the tombstone:

"L. B., son of J. C. and L. J. Cate born April 10, 1870. Married Willie Freeman December 21, 1887. Was shot and killed by Bill Penick Decem ber 11, 1896; caused by Penick swear ing a lie on Cate's wife. Aged 26 years, 8 months and 1 day."

It is alleged by Penick that this stone was sculptured by J. H. Hutchi son, a sculptor at Martin, and it is alleged that the stone was exposed to public gaze in the yard of J. H. Hut chison for quite a while before it was erected at the head of the grave con taining the remains of the deceased Cate.

Since the vindication of Penick by the trial jury up in Weakly county, he has sought reparation for the wor ding of this tombstone, and a couple of days ago the suit for damages for the defamation contained therein was brought in the circuit court of Weak ly county. The complainant sues both the sculptor and father of the deceased for $10,000 damages.

It is not a remedy put up by any Tom, Dick or Harry; it is compounded by expert pharmacists. Ely Bros. offer a 10 cent trial size. Ask your druggist. Full size Cream Balm 50c.
We mail it to you.

which I had long suffered are gone.

YANDELL'S SWEEPING ORDER.

Thirty-Six Revenue Employees at Owens boro Notified to Walk the Plank

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 29.—Collect or Yandell has notified thirty six of the seventy seven gaugers, storekeep ers and storekeeper gaugers in his of fice that their commissions have been revoked under the rule requiring him to keep on duty those actually requir ed with a reserve allowance of 15 per cent. This reduces the active list to thirty six and the reserve list to five.
The thirty six active duty men, inclu ding one Republican just reinstated, have been assigned to various distric ries. Some of the dismissed men ex pected the order, but it was a great surprise generally to the force, and is construed as meaning the ultimate dismissal of all Democrats to make way for reinstated Republicans and new appointees.

Miss Charlie Woolford is still sick and under the care of a doctor.

Jeff LaRue and Jim Carter have had the clover huller at work on their farms this week, hulling clover. We are glad to see those gentlemen take hold of the seed saving business and if others would follow their example there would be a saving of many big 100 cent silver dollars to our farmers.

Archey Croson was in Paducah

Mr. Thos. Barger of Dunn Springs is recovering from a long spell of severe illness. An abscess on the back of his neck and shoulders kept him bedfast for weeks, and at one time his life was despaired of; but he is now able to be up, and in the course of a few weeks hopes to be out again.

Rev. P. T. Hardison left Wednesday night last week for his new field of labor, Jeffersonstown, Jefferson county. He is a grand old man and his many friends in Marion hope that his health will be fully restored and that he may be able to do many years of active service in the ministry yet.

Mr. Tom Murray, who lives near the old water mill five or six miles from town, while at a barn raising the other day met with a painful accident. While "carrying up" a corner of the building the axe he was using glanced and struck him on the knee, inflicting a severe though not serious wound.

A. F. Griffith, the grocery man, had quite an unpleasant experience Sunday evening. Going home after night he, in the darkness, made a mistake, went through the porch door and landed in the cellar beneath. No bones were broken, however, as he landed in a large tub of water, which Mrs. Griffith had placed there, but not exactly for that purpose.

There has been some changes in the management of the Clark & Kevill mill. Mr. W. D. Haynes now has charge of the exchange department; Wm. Peck becomes assistant miller and D. B. Keil is general manager, and will see that the flour is satisfactory and everything in accordance with the best of conditions for patrons.

Monday Hon. J. C. Sims, of Bowling Green, pursuant to announcement, made an address at the court house on the political issues of the day. The audience was small, consisting, by actual count, of Republicans 55, Democrats 32, Populists 3, Democrats 3, silver Republicans 1, politically unknown 3, total 97.

The speech was an average goldite sort, but failed to arouse any perceptible amount of enthusiasm—except, indeed, among his three goldite brethren and a few of his Republican sympathizers, these latter especially when the speaker struck the "crime of '73".

Mr. Sims spoke for about an hour, and concluded by informing his three goldite brethren that they were the great Democratic party, and that they had a candidate for clerk of the court of appeals, by the name of Hindman. Although he did not expect to elect his man, he expected great things in the future, when free silver would be out of the way—and his three brethren applauded and said amen.

Mrs. Sarah Farmer, wife of H. C. Farmer, is dangerously sick at her home five miles west of town. She has been very low for some time, and her friends are very doubtful of her recovery.

LATER—Mrs. Farmer died Tuesday at half past two o'clock. She was 50 years of age, a kind christian lady, a member of the Baptist church at Union, and had a host of friends. She was buried yesterday in the family grave yard near home. She leaves a husband and several children. A large number of friends attended the funeral services.

For Police Judge.

We announce Mr. T. T. Murphy a candidate for police judge of Marion. Everybody recognizes in "Uncle Tom" an honest, straightforward, good citizen. He has had considerable experience on the bench as police judge and is a level headed man. If elected he will meet out justice according to law, and will doubtless make an eminently satisfactory officer.

For County Attorney.

Mr. T. F. Newcom directs us to announce him a candidate for county attorney. Mr. Newcom is well known to the people of the county; he has been teaching in our public schools a number of years, and some years ago he made a creditable race for school superintendent. He stands high as a man and a citizen.

Announces for Re-election.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of justice of the peace for Union precinct and promise if elected to do in the future as I have in the past, the best I know how. I am thankful to my friends for past favors. Election November 2, 1897.

T. A. Harpending.

Newcom a Candidate.

There was a genuine surprise in local political circles Tuesday when a petition was filed in the county clerk's office asking that T. F. Newcom's name be placed on the official ballot, under the log cabin, as a candidate for county attorney. The petition states that he represents the principles of the "National Democrat party," and has been endorsed by the Republicans. Mr. Newcom is the well known teacher; he voted in the Democratic primary last April, and his candidacy is a big surprise.

BRYAN COMING

Next Week He Makes the State a Flying Visit.

And Is Expected To Stop A Few Minutes At Marion Wednesday.

—Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2.—W. J. Bryan will speak in Kentucky as follows:

At Glasgow on Saturday, October 9. He will remain over at Glasgow on Sunday.

On Monday, the 11, he will speak at Lebanon in the morning.

In the afternoon of the 11, he will speak at Elizabethtown.

At Russellville on Thursday, the 12. At Herderson on Wednesday morning the 13.

At Paducah on the night of the 12. These are the only set speeches arranged and he will remain no longer in Kentucky.

Efforts have been made since it was known that Mr. Bryan would go from Henderson to Paducah, to get him to stop at Marion. Yesterday Mr. O. M. James received a letter from National Committeeman Woodson stating that the special train would stop for a few minutes at Marion Wednesday, Oct. 13. It is not yet known at just what hour the train will be here, but Hon. William Jennings Bryan will be at the Marion depot next Wednesday for a few minutes. Efforts will be made to get him to make a short speech.

Lola Free Silver Club.

The Lola Free Silver Club meet every Friday night and invite every one to come out to its meetings. The committee on speaking will arrange for a speech at every meeting. Following is the committee: J. D. Foley, W. N. Davis, L. P. Mitchell, R. S. Paris.

Joseph Mason, Vice President Gallatin and Hardin Counties Veterans Association.

For Mayor.

We announce Mr. Wm. Radd as a candidate for Mayor of Marion. There isn't a more "home" or affable gentleman anywhere than Bill Radd; he is a man of good sound sense, conservative in his opinions, and if chosen to fill the office there is no doubt but that he would leave nothing in his power undone to make a faithful officer. He will greatly appreciate your vote.

A Big Meeting.

A big revival meeting is in progress at Dunn Spring church, conducted by Rev. W. M. Brown. A large number of conversions are reported. A basket dinner will be given on the grounds Sunday and an all day meeting will be held. Everybody is invited to come, bringing well filled baskets.

A CARD.

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of magistrate in Hurricane precinct. I will greatly appreciate the vote and influence of every voter in the precinct. If I should be elected it would be my utmost endeavor to make you a good and faithful officer.

P. C. Moore.

Held Over.

The men whom Buchanan accused of whipping Squire Paine—Howell, Pope, Wilborn and Hurst, were held over by Judge Moore to answer any bill the grand jury might find against them. So sure were they of acquittal that they did not employ a lawyer until the trial was partly over.

The court said there was a doubt of their having committed the offense, and while he did not believe a jury would find them guilty, yet in an examining trial the commonwealth was entitled to the benefit of any doubt, while on final trial the defendants could have the benefit of the doubt.

The bonds were reduced from $1,000 to $500 and all executed bond. Bob Wilborn, who was also accused by Buchanan, was discharged.

New K. of H. Lodge.

Tuesday night a lodge of Knights of Honor was organized at Shady Grove. Grand Reporter A. J. Hess was the instituting officer. There are twenty-six charter members. The following officers were chosen:

Dr. J. N. Todd, P. D.
J. L. Cardwell, D.
J. H. Brandon, V. D.
C. F. Cavanah, A. D.
G. W. Mitchell, R.
B. F. Horning, F. R.
A. D. Babb, T.
W. S. Kemp, G.
Henry Bell, C.
D. N. Kemp, Guard.
W. S. McDowell, S.

The lodge was named "Shady Grove."

Glendale Revival.

The meeting began, September 19, 1897, and continued two weeks. Bro. A. Hall and Murphy did the preaching and Bro. W. B. Yates led the singing. The power began to fall at the first service and the meeting was good from first to last. Souls were saved at almost every coming together, and one night fourteen were converted. One hundred and eleven were converted and sanctified during the meeting. The christians were wonderfully revived and worked with a zeal never witnessed before. One unconverted person was heard to remark that "he never saw such christians."

If any one got away from them he must leave the house and go to the woods." Many times during the services there were penitents not only at the altar but all over the house. Eternity alone will reveal the wonderful good done at this meeting.

YOUNG MEN'S BEST CHANCES.
Of Success Are to be Found Outside Our Our Large Cities.

"Business conditions of the great cities are not favorable to our young men," writes Edward W. Bok in the October Ladies Home Journal, advising young men about to begin their careers against going to the cities. "It is said," he continues, "that competition develops men. It does, unquestionably. But to cope with present competition as it exists in the centers, calls for a vast amount of experience.
That experience a man must have to back him before he can enter the competing arena. 'But how can I better acquire that experience than where there is constant need of it? How better, my young friend? By serving a large apprenticeship in some city smaller than the greatest. The large cities are today poor places in which to learn the rudiments of business competition, for while the young man is learning the experienced man swallows him up. 'But that is experience' persists the young man. It is, but a more severe kind than there is need of; a kind which, once indulged in, does not leave a pleasant remembrance. Competition in a smaller city may be just as keen, proportionally, but what is all important to the young man just starting out the risk is not so great; the experience is not apt to be so costly, should he fail to succeed; it is a true saying that a man before he succeeds in business must expect to measure his height on the ground a time or two. But it is not necessary that in his first knockdown he should be knocked out."

"But there is another and more important fact which the young man away from the large cities does not realize. It is that the number of possible positions in the large cities is not increasing, despite the reiterated assertions constantly made to the contrary.
The very opposite is the truth. Various cases explain this; higher taxes, higher prices of lots or lack of building room, labor strikes and lower cost of production. The manufacturing interests of this country are constantly tending towards the smaller cities, and away from the centers. All this means fewer positions, since only in rare instances does the executive part of a business call for a larger number of employees than does the manufacturing side, and the sooner our young men are brought to realize this fact the better."

HONEST DICK TATE.

Rolling in Wealth on a Brazilian Coffee Plantation.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Dick Tate, the absconding State Treasurer of Kentucky who was supposed to have died in Japan a few years after he left this country, is said to be living in Brazil, where he has a large and profitable coffee plantation. More than this, he has been in the United States a number of times since his flight. Twice he has visited Chicago.
He was here several weeks during the World's Fair and recently was entertained here as a member of the Pan American delegation. News of his whereabouts now comes through the efforts of his daughter, Mrs. Martin, to collect his life insurance money, amounting to about $25,000. In contesting the claim the insurance companies have sent detectives to Brazil and these men report that Tate is alive and living like a nabob on the income of a big coffee plantation.

"Yes, Dick Tate is alive," said William Pinkerson. "Some time ago I had a man in the Argentine Republic working on an important case.
He was there nearly two years, and made extensive trips about the country. This operative is a Kentuckian and knows Tate well. One day he was in Buenos Ayres and ran into Dick Tate, well clothed, with plenty of money, and looking prosperous.
They had a long talk together. Tate making no denial of his identity and telling freely of his troubles and his long travels. He had changed his name to some high sounding Spanish title. Tate told the operative that he had a big coffee plantation in Brazil, and was making money fast, and from the report made to me later, I guess he was telling the truth. In 1893, the World's Fair year, I also had word that Tate was there. This was before the incident at Buenos Ayres. My information came from a man who wrote to inquire whether Tate was wanted and what the reward was. At that time I also sent word to the Kentucky people, who replied that the reward has been withdrawn."

A Valuable Prescription

Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., Sun, writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for constipation and sick headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Anna Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove Av., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat or digest food, had a backache which never left her, and felt tired and weary but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her to health and strength. Prices 50 cts and $1. Get a bottle at J. H. Orme's drug store.

50 lbs. of Coal

A day would keep your rooms warm in winter. But that small stove will burn only twenty-five. Hence, discomfort and misery.

A certain amount of fat, burned daily, would keep your body warm and healthy. But your digestion is bad, and you don't get it from ordinary fat-food. Hence you are chilly, you catch cold easily, you have coughs and shivers; while pneumonia, bronchitis, or consumption finds you with no resistive power.

Do this. Burn better fuel.
Use SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil. Appetite and digestive power will revive; and soon a warm coating of good flesh will protect the vital organs against the cold and the body against disease.

Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00
Book free for the asking.

CARRSVILLE.

Supt. H. V. McChesney visited our school Friday last and made an interesting talk. At night a debate was held on the question, Is Education more to be desired than anything else. The negative won. There was also music and recitations. Car-rsville has 114 scholars enrolled. Prof.
C. C. Howard principal, and he is one of the best teachers in the county, and is a great worker in education.
and for the building up of schools.
Prof. rules by love and kindness, and is always ready and willing to assist his pupils. What is life without education.

Carrsville is in favor of a graded school and no whisky. What a fine chance we have today; when our fathers and mothers went to school they had not half our advantages.
Let us go to work and climb higher and higher. Look at Ben Franklin, because we are poor, what does that amount to. There is not a boy or a girl but what can make something of themselves. Let us make men and women that the county will be proud of. Soon the boys may be doctors, preachers, lawyers, congressmen, to fill those places now held by others, and the girls teachers, and let us go to work more earnest. You show me a person who never tries to do anything and I will show you one who does nothing.

Hoping the school of Livingston success and best wishes, and that the teacher may have a prosperous school.
Lillie Bellamy,

Hanna Prosperity.

Franklin, Ind., Sept. 29.—The cap-pers at the canning factory struck to day on account of a cut in wages and change to poorer material. The strike caused some inconvenience and the factor was stopped for a time, but other men were put to work and the plant was running tonight. The wages were cut 10 per cent.

Grief.

Had Foley's Honey and Tar been used this story would have had a happier ending.

"My boy came home from school one day, with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo.
"I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. H.
